Diabetes controlled with Insulin or medication that carries a Hypoglycaemea risk

First Time Application

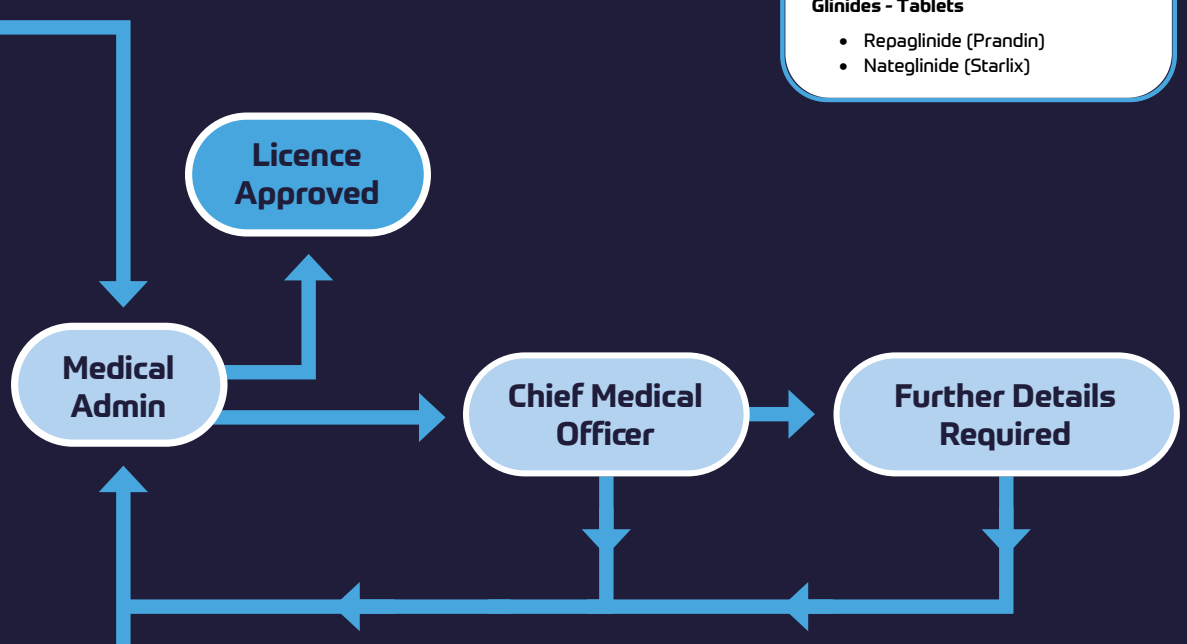

Letter from your doctor answering the following questions

1. How long has your patient been diabetic? (There is a 3-month stability period when starting Insulin medication)
2. What is their current medication regime?
3. Have they had any severe Hypoglycaemic attacks within the last 12 months?
4. Do they have any diabetic complications including neuropathies?
5. Confirmation of an annual diabetic eye check including their most recent results.
6. What is their latest Glycosylated Haemoglobin level (HbA1c)? Is this within the normal range for the laboratory undertaking the test?
7. Please include the latest report from their diabetic clinical team.

Renewal Application

Letter from your doctor answering the following questions

1. What is your current medication regime?
2. Have you had any severe Hypoglycaemic episodes within the last 12 months?
3. Do you have any diabetic complications including neuropathies?
4. Confirmation of your annual diabetic eye check including your most recent results.
5. What is your latest Glycosylated Haemoglobin level (HbA1c)? Is this within the normal range for the laboratory undertaking the test?
6. Please include the latest report from your diabetic clinical team.

Medications which carry hypoglycaemia risk include:

Sulphonylureas - Tablets

- Gliclazide (Zicron, Glydex, Diamicron, Edicil, Lamzarin, Xywin, Ziclaseg)
- Tolbutamide
- Glipizide (Minodiab)
- Glimepiride

Glinides - Tablets

- Repaglinide (Prandin)
- Nateglinide (Starlix)